Operations-focused analyst with cross-functional coordination expertise and execution under pressure

Six years coordinating complex projects where ownership was unclear and stakes were high. Moved from precision-driven credit analysis to product operations, becoming the coordination focal point in multi-stakeholder environments. Brings calm reliability, process optimization, and ability to make judgment calls that keep work moving. Now focused on tournament operations and event coordination in sports.

EXPERIENCE

Product Analyst

May 2022 – August 2025

Acuity Knowledge Partners, Bengaluru

- Coordinated product development for financial analytics platforms serving institutional investors, managing stakeholder alignment across five products with focus on delivery execution and cross-functional coordination
- Became coordination focal point in high-pressure project where communication had broken down and ownership was unclear, stabilising delivery by documenting decisions, understanding stakeholder needs, and making judgment calls to keep work moving
- Designed and executed integration of two applications under tight timeline, creating user flow diagrams that aligned technical, design, and business teams, delivering 15-50% efficiency gains with minimal development time
- Improved product accuracy from 30% to 90% by establishing clear processes for requirements definition, coordinating between product owner and development teams, and maintaining quality standards throughout delivery
- Managed agile delivery processes including sprint planning, stakeholder workshops, and documentation, ensuring alignment across design, engineering, and business teams using Jira and Confluence
- Conducted comprehensive product review coordinating user interviews, competitive analysis, and cross-functional workshops, proposing strategic overhaul that required buy-in from multiple stakeholders

Credit Analyst

September 2019 – April 2022

Acuity Knowledge Partners, Gurgaon

- Managed financial analysis workflow for Texas commercial bank across real estate, energy, retail, and non-profit sectors, coordinating with onshore relationship managers and credit officers to ensure accurate, timely delivery
- Fastest progression in 25-member team, handling all specialised roles within 18 months by systematically building expertise and becoming the reliable point person for complex, time-sensitive assignments
- Maintained 100% accuracy under tight deadlines through disciplined process management, quality checks, and clear communication of covenant calculations and compliance status
- Established reputation for calm execution on complicated financials requiring detailed reconciliation and stakeholder coordination across time zones
